ABOUT US

“We draw on a rich history of ancestral manual production techniques that we care to maintain to this day, combining them with the modern technologies we now have available.”

From hulls to straps, down to the smallest details, we pride ourselves on our local production, supporting small suppliers and boosting the entire regional and national economy.

We draw a rich history of ancestral manual production techniques that we care to maintain to this day, combined with modern technologies we now have available.

With our 100% Portuguese materials and skilled professionals, Domkapa’s collection provides a remarkable experience through designs with an undeniable quality that survives the test of time.

2023 MODULAR SOFA SYSTEM

Edward

Offering maximum compositional adaptability, Edward allows you to play with a wide array of modules for limitless results.

Edward takes inspiration from the desire to retreat from cosmopolitan life. This sofa embodies a modular system with a wide range of elements, allowing you to play with configurations and build a sofa according to your taste, without ever giving up on comfort.

This minimalistic design with generous proportions has a distinct character for its versatility, especially when combined with different accessories, such as a magazine rack, a headrest and a side table.

Edward's soft structure reinvents the definition of comfort, while a visual effect is achieved for its clean lines and simple shapes.
